

PageTraffic Wins the 2015 Best SEO Company Award by Promotion World

Since its inception way back in 2002, Page Traffic has proved its mantle over the years by emerging as the most recognized and reputed digital search marketing agency. Promotion World has once again listed PageTraffic as one of the top 3 SEO companies of 2015.

Mr. Navneet Kaushal, the CEO of PageTraffic expressed his gratitude by saying, "We feel overwhelmed by this recognition. It is a consecutive win for PageTraffic and a great encouragement for our passionate team of professionals. We are thankful to Promotion World for inspiring us to keep up the good work. To stand among the top 3 SEO companies is a matter of pride. There is a strong competition in the digital world, and to be chosen as one of the top 3, is a great achievement beyond any doubt. This kind of recognition further instills the enthusiasm in us to provide outstanding contribution to SEO realm."

“ Our motive has always been to strive hard and accomplish the crucial digital tasks so as to make the client contended and ultimately assist in business growth. ”

The Top SEO Company Award aims to list the best companies in the industry on the basis of offered services, package diversity, customer support, new products and services, feedback, website popularity and overall performance. The winners of 2015 stand out among an ever-growing number of companies delivering high quality digital services.

Mr. Kaushal further added, "2015 has been a year full of challenges and innovative techniques to serve our clients in the best possible manner. Our motive has always been to strive hard and accomplish the crucial digital tasks so as to make the client contended and ultimately assist in business growth. Drastic changes have been noticed in SEO, to match the pace, we chalked out effective strategies and process flow. I am positive that 2016 is also going to be a year full of achievements for PageTraffic."
